

POLICY:

STUDENT INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL

RATIONALE

- ▶ Ensure students have access to information essential to their travel abroad.
- ▶ Assess any potential risks and appropriate actions to reduce those risks.
- ▶ Build the University's information and data on when and where students are taking advantage of these Education Abroad and related opportunities.

WHO THIS APPLIES TO

- ▶ This policy applies to all undergraduate and graduate students—at the Storrs and regional campuses including the Law School—traveling internationally for university-sponsored or university-related purposes.

ENFORCEMENT

- ▶ Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary measures in accordance with the University of Connecticut's Responsibilities of Community Life: The Student Code.
- ▶ The University reserves the right to deny academic credit, funding or reimbursement for any student international travel that is inconsistent with published policies and practices.
- ▶ Detailed policy at <https://policy.uconn.edu/academic-and-student-life>

“Any student who travels internationally for university-sponsored or university-related purposes is required to register with the Office of Global Affairs: Education Abroad”

SCOPE

“University-sponsored or university-related purposes include credit-bearing Education Abroad programs, internships, research, service learning and volunteer opportunities, conferences, registered student organization activities, student groups affiliated with academic departments, and other non-credit-bearing University programs.
